« A combined expression of two terroirs: the solid one of clay-limestone and the finer and velvety one of black shale. In the glass, a wine with a deep color, both round, melted, coated by the beautiful sweetness of Grenache, but also wilder with the camphor note of a sunny Carignan. A wine that evolves in the register of finesse and elegance rather than that of power, with the added bonus of a nice peppery finish. 2022-2026 »
